

If you were admitted to FAU beginning Fall 2018 but before Fall 2021 you may meet the Civic Literacy requirement by:

Successfully passing either POSX041 American Government or AMHX020 Introductory Survey Since 1877

OR

Achieving the standard score on one of the following assessments:

- AP Government and Politics: United States with a score of 3 or higher
- AP United States History with a score of 4 or higher
- CLEP: American Government with a score of 50 or higher

OR

2018 Florida Civic Literacy Exam with a score of 60 higher (100 questions)

If you were admitted to FAU beginning Fall 2021 or thereafter you may meet the Civic Literacy requirement by:

Successfully passing either POSX041 American Government or AMHX020 Introductory Survey Since 1877

OR

- Achieving the standard score on one of the following assessments:
- AP Government and Politics: United States with a score of 3 or higher
- AP United States History with a score of 4 or higher
- CAMBRIDGE AICE History, US History, c 1789-1917 (AS-Level) with a score of A-E
- CLEP: American Government with a score of 50 or higher
- IB History: History of America with a score of 5-7

AND

- U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services Naturalization Test-Civics (U.S. history and government) with supplemental questions with a score of 60
- 2021 Florida Civic Literacy Exam with a score of 60 higher (80 questions) Opening Fall 2021